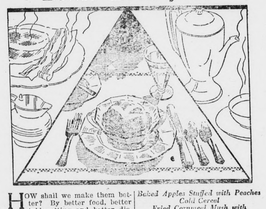
Better Breakfasts



HOW shall we make them better? By better food, better table-setting and better dispositions. The latter will be inevitable. Use glassware instead of china to vary your breakfast setting. It is inexpensive, and it suggests a light, gay mood that is a splendid way to start the day. Without pink dishes on a green cloth are pretty. So is white crystal on a flowered glazed chintz cloth, or, if you like, with ... ris glassware on eggshell linen damask.

And now, gangway for the better food! Be sure that it is delicious food. Did you know that ... ton brown is said to be ... most appetizing color for ... food? Well, here is an entire menu of golden ... browns, reds and golds.

Father DARKLE F'S Column

BY C.H.R.

Just one year ago yesterday at five minutes after ten, th telephone rang in the office o police chief Harry Wolfe, o Hopewell, N. J. It was a dar windswept night. The chief yawned and then reached fo the receiver.

The ringing of that phone was the overture to the greatest drama in recent years, th kidnapping and murder of the Lindbergh baby. Just one year ago, last night, it was that Betty Gow tip-toed into the nursery of the world's most famous baby to see if the child was wrapped warmly for the night—only to recoil in bewildered horror from the stark bleakness of an empty crib and an open window.

It was the supreme news story since the world war. For weeks it gripped the daily attention of the world—and the last chapter, the retribution, has not yet been penned.

* * *

We suggest as a slogan for the Roosevelt administration: "Wasn't that depression terrible while it lasted?"

* * *

As the donkey marches on Washington, every Democrat has his eye on some sort of a job. Now Father Darkleaf is a loyal Democrat and, let's see—well—how about, how about, Mr. Roosevelt—er—oh who've you made ambassador to the South Sea Islands?

* * *

George Abbitt recently pointed out to us that a ruling here of Justice T. W. Moses re affirmed an ancient law—that the liability to violate law may be equal between two parties, making neither individually at fault. It was a case of an automobile accident—and the ruling was—neither at fault.

* * *

Here's a new Coolidge story: a friend was sitting on the porch of the Coolidge home—with Cal—and a stream of tourists kept passing by. "Mr. Coolidge, those people are driving out of their way just to see your home." Silence from Cal. "I should think you'd get a lot of pride out of knowing that they want to see where the president lived." Silence from Cal. "Well, just watch them . . . I'd bet that some days at least 200 of them com by here." "Yep", replied Coolidge, "there were 297 yester day."

They Move Up

Graduates of the Appomattox high school have made "made good". Here's a list o 1915 graduates and their present occupation:

Horace Campbell, Navy; Wayland Charlton, minister at Altavista; Ben Lane, minister in Wisconsin; Raymond Meikle physician at Williamsburg; Joe Leps, journalism in Florida; Rober Wingfield, prof. at U. of Va.; Walter Rice, teacher and business in Lynchburg; Robert Turnbull, trade employ; Edward Roach, lawyer, Charlotte County; Yeadon Winbush, merchent in Hallsboro; Charlie Moses, business, here; Carroll Ould, business, Roanoke.

Susie Caldwell, housekeeper; Pearl Caldwell, housekeeper; Mary Harris, business; Annie Odor, housekeeper; Virginia Spiggle, housekeeper; Emmie Walton, business; Bessie Thornton, housekeeper; Georgia Foster, teacher housekeeper.

Raymond won scholarship to Richmond College, Edward Roach won Moses Improvement medal. Russell Pulliam won agricultural medal; Francis McDearmon won U. D. C. medal. Dr. T. A. Smoot preached graduating sermon. Dr. J. D. Eggleston made address to graduates. Class play was "Hamlet" with income of $212.00.

SPRING MILLS

SPRING MILLS, March 1.—Rev. H. L. Loflin has accepted the pastorate of Union Hill church and preached his first sermon last Sunday.

Mrs. Evie May Ford who has been on the sick list for some time, continues about the same. Her daughter, Mrs. Dah Pankey, of Pamplin, is staying with her this week.

Miss Emma Martin, of Roanoke.

Prof. Simpson and Miss Elizabeth Davis, of the Union Hill faculty, and Rex Martin visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ford Tuesday evening.

J. A. Ferguson, aged 80, died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. P. Hendrick, on last Tuesday. He had been with his daughter since he suffered a stroke of paralysis last December. He was buried at Central Baptist church. Funeral services conducted by the Rev. W. M. Thompson, of Appomattox.

Active pallbearers were: Mott and Charlie Hendrick, Roy and Everett Ferguson, Maury Howard and Charlie Paris. Flower girls were his grandchildren, Mrs. Maury Howard, Mrs. Charlie Paris, Mrs. Frank Lindsay, Mrs. Roy Ferguson, Misses Jessie and Bessie Ferguson.

Attorney General Elect, Walsh, Dies Suddenly Today

Just as we go to press telegraph wires bring the news that Senator Thomas J. Walsh, named by Roosevelt as his new attorney-general in the cabinet, died suddenly this morning at 8 o'clock, on a Seaboard train, passing through North Carolina on his way to Washington. He was returning from Cuba where he had just married the widow of a wealthy sugar planter, and was returning to Washington for the inauguration.

Famed as a senator and investigator, Walsh won fame in his brilliant prosecution of the Ten-Pot Dome scandals and other senate inquiries. Although a Republican, he was picked by Roosevelt for his cabinet.

Mrs. A. B. Chick

Mrs. A. B. Chick, a well known and highly esteemed christian lady of Appomattox county, died on Saturday, February 25. She had been in declining health for several years. Although her death was not unexpected, she will be greatly missed by a large number of relatives and friends.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. C. D. Carson, one son, Claude Chick, of Danville, and the following brothers, Rev. A. L. Carson, Richmond; Rev. E. V. Carson, Crozet; Emmett Carson, Galts Mill; Aurelius Carson, Campbell county; Eldridge and Volney Carson, of Appomattox.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 P. M., from Bethel Methodist church, with interment in the church cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. A. S. J. Rice, fromer pastor of the deceased, assisted by Rev. E. ... Lewis, pastor of Bethel church and Rev. W. T. Henderson, pastor of Hebron Baptist church.

A quartet composed of Albert Stratton, Sterling Scruggs, Russel Turnes and Elisha King sang "Rock of Ages" and "Home of the Soul", at the church, and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" at the grave.

Active pallbearers were: Joe Carson, Eugene Roberts, Marvin Brinkard, Lester Carson, Allen Chick and Esthmus Carson. Honorary pallbearers were: B. L. Wheeler, B. W. Hamilton, R. L. Moore, T. A. King, O. R. Turnes, Dr. R. H. Cross, Tom Caldwell, Phillip Moore, Percy Garrette, Watson Chick, Dr. C. F. James, W. C. Chick, G. O. Thornhill, C. W. Thomas and Charlie Chick.

Flower bearers were: Virginia Chick, Mary Willie Carson, Mabel Carson, Mrs. Lyle Caldwell, Lucy Jane Chick, Mrs. Mary Clayton, Mrs. Clyde White, Mrs. Essie Chick, Alva Moore, Mrs. B. W. Franklin, Louise Carson and Rachel Chick.

No Birthday!

There simply wasn't any birthday for R. C. Wagner, well known Appomattox citizen, this year. The fellows who made the calendar spoiled it all for him—for he was born on the twenty-ninth of February this year. Now last year was another matter and Mr. Wagner celebrated his fifty-sixth year and his fourteenth birthday then with his family.

Big Pay-roll Here

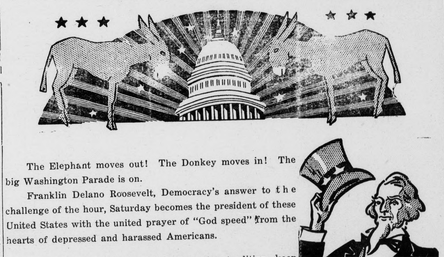
R. F. C. Pays Out $3,500 This Week

Approximately $3,500 will be paid out in this county this week in R.F.C. roa work pay checks, it was stated yesterday by R. L. Burke, county treasurer and J. H. O'Brien, R. F. C. local chairman.

This is the largest pay-roll in the county since the special road work started.

R. F. C. work will come to an end here after next week. Over $27,000 will have been put into circulation by that time.

Out in a Western town a newspaper put a one dollar bill into circulation and kept track of its circulation for one week and found that it passed through twenty-one hands in one week. That test merely shows that a small amount of money— IN CIRCULATION will do a tremendous amount of good. It is estimated that the $27,000 circulated here by the R.F.C. will have paid at least $200,000 worth of bills and probably more. Therefore the work has been a great blessing to the county. The administration has been expertly handled and great credit is due to the local men who have supervised the expenditures of this money.



The Elephant moves out! The Donkey moves in! The big Washington Parade is on.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Democracy's answer to the challenge of the hour, Saturday becomes the president of these United States with the united prayer of "God speed" from the hearts of depressed and harassed Americans.

Fresh from the idealism of Jeffersonian tradition, keen with the spirit of the most striking vote of confidence ever manifest at the polls, armed with the most progressive platform and congressional support ever accorded an incoming president, he will move ahead to do battle with unemployment, war debts, farm relief, prohibition, taxation, economy and rehabilitation.

It's a new page in American history, dear readers, that opens Saturday. We foresee a return to basic Americanism.

Our minds eye recalls that when Washington was faced with ruin and failure at Valley Forge, there was no "R.F.C." but by a mighty display of basic character in the people themselves.

Shall we not have now a revival of that sturdy Yankee grit, American spirit and patriotic determination, to plough ahead resolutely to a "New Deal"?

Come on, America, Let's go forward into the NEW DAY.

Recital

The agricultural department of Appomattox Training school has completed plans for its first years work, according to R. G. Lawing, instructor. Each boy has carefully selected a type of farming which he will try to carry out. There are seventeen boys enrolled in the department. The following program has been selected by the boys; 43 acres of corn; 15 acres of wheat; 1 acre of clover; 1 acre alfalfa and 100 laying hens; 775 baby chicks; 2 dairy cows and 19 pigs.

Each boy has entered the work with a great deal of zeal and enthusiasm.

The objectives of the department this year are as follows: To meet all state objectives possible; to beautify the school campus; to conduct a farm shop exhibit this spring.

Irma B. Kyle, soprano, of Lynchburg, will sing at the Training school here Friday of this week at 8 p. m. General admission 15 and 25 cents. White friends invited.
